Location & Setting

Located in the Keith A. Ewing Medical Building of Avalon Park, an 1,800-acre planned community situated in east Orlando, NeuroRestorative Avalon Park is licensed as a transitional living facility (TLF) by the state of Florida and is the only one of its kind to serve individuals with both brain and spinal cord injury. We provide comprehensive, post-acute skilled therapy services in a location with access to many amenities such as restaurants, churches, movie theaters and a variety of retail locations, giving residents the freedom to participate in all aspects of community life.

A short drive from downtown Orlando, Avalon Park is conveniently located near the Orlando airport and in close proximity to specialized medical resources and the Medical Corridor located at Lake Nona. In addition, the facility is just 30 minutes from both the Atlantic beaches to the East and the area's major attractions to the Southwest.
